Gary Stein, Armed Forces Tea PartyPosted by Gary Stein (Diary)

Today has been a long long and I am finally home. So here are some updates

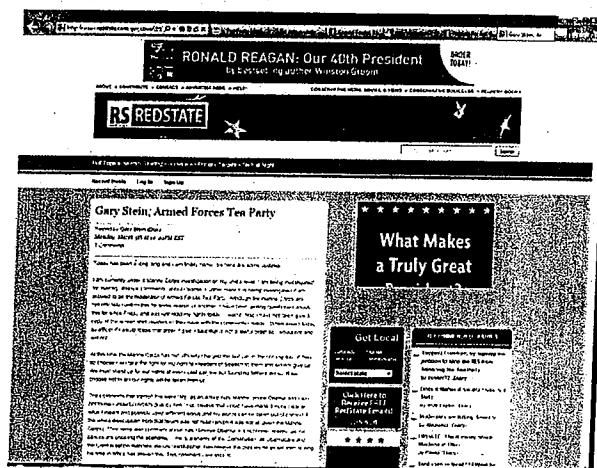

I am currently under a Marine Corps investigation on my unit's level. I am being investigated for making "disloyal comments" about Obama. Further more It is being investigated if am allowed to be the moderator of Armed Forces Tea Party. Although the marine Corps will not officially confirm this for some reason or another. I have been getting questioned about this for since Friday and was just read my rights today... weird. Also I have not been give a copy of the screen shot (evidence) they have with the comments I made... When asked today by officer if I would follow that order if give, I said that is not a lawful order so I would not and will not.

At this time the Marine Corps has not officially charged me but can in the coming day. If they so choose I will take the fight for my right to Freedom of Speech to them and will not give up. We must stand up for our rights at every cost just like our founding fathers did so. If we choose not to act our rights will be taken from us.

The comments that started this were "Me, as an active duty Marine, screw Obama and I will not follow (unlawful) orders give by him." I do believe that I cold have made it more clear on what I meant and possibly used different words and my words can be taken out of context if the whole disscussion from that forum was not read (which it was not all given the Marine Corps). Their were also comment about how I believe Obama is a economic enemy, as his polices are crippling the economic... He is a enemy of the Constitution, as Obamacare and the Contraception mandate are unconstitutional. I do believe the policies he as set forth during his time in office has proven this. This comment I will stick to.

Military members are encouraged to voice their rights as Americans but to do it peacefully and not in a wreck less way. You have rights and make sure no one tell you other wise! You must stand for your rights! I believe that an informed voting electorate is the absolute best way to affect long-term, positive, deep-rooted change in the country. Obama's election is banking on the fact that there are more people who'd rather sit around and do nothing — become wards of the state, become totally dependent on him — than there are people who would like to seek their dreams, be the best they can be, go out and pursue happiness, to stand up for their rights and defend the Constitution.

Our Armed Forces place their life on the line for political agendas every day, is it common sense to think that they should have no opinion about what they are potentially sacrificing their lives for? We say no! Let them be heard.

AFTP consist of a broad coalition of Active, Reserve, and Former military members along with family, friends and Americans that support the United States Military and the Tea Party.

AFTP is here to promote the Tea Party movement's objectives of:

Fiscal Responsibility
Constitutionally Limited Government
Free Markets

GARY STEIN'S $5BUCK DEFENSE FUND DRIVE

Gary understands times are tough in our nation. He ask if you could support him and AFTP with just $5bucks. It will go a long way towards helping him in his battle with the Marine Corps over free speech. If you can't, we absolutely understand, just keep supporting AFTP and Gary. Armed Forces Tea Party Disavows Gary Steins Comments

Recommenders: YnotNOW (Diary)

There has been a rash of PR stunt related comments from a facebook page owner,(USMC, Sgt Gary Stein) using the Armed Forces Tea Party good name www.armedforcesteaparty.com . These comments are from one person calling on the AFTP to “draw a line in the sand” and not obey orders from the chain of command. Later that was corrected when it went public in the media to “unlawful orders”. However the drum beat continues with more like posts today (19 March) on the facebook page saying this:

We swore an oath to defend the CONSTITUTION against ALL enemies Foreign and Domestic. We did not take an oath to obey unlawful, immoral, or unconstitutional orders from the President, other politicians, or the officers and senior enlisted within our chain of command. AFTP has drawn a line in the sand. We will not “just follow orders.”

We take serious issue with these comments as no member of an all volunteer forces gets to decide in the heat of battle that an order they are given is “immoral”! This also could hold true for the very, VERY subjective personal view of what is unconstitutional or unlawful. This is a giant PR stunt in our opinion and is not reflective of the Armed Forces Tea Party or our members and followers. This is a blanket statement by one person that is now reflecting on all that serve or have served and it needs to be corrected. If not the USMC has a serious issue on it's hands long term as this grows.

It must be stressed given all the very negative attention this is getting that we in the www.armedforcesteaparty.com do not and will not tell members of our military to start picking and choosing the orders they want to follow based on personal feelings about what is Moral,

Legal or Constitutional. If a member can no longer serve in good faith they need to let their chain of command know and then "Un-Volunteer" from our great military.

We have the best legal system (The UCMJ), the most respected officer corps, the best trained NCO and SNCO corps and this stunt by USMC Sgt, Gary Stein is a smack in the face to that entire system of checks and balances and calls into question for no reason the integrity of the entire military. He is in essence saying he'll decide what works for him when it comes to following orders and worse he is openly planting seeds in the hearts and minds of others on his facebook page that this reckless action is acceptable behavior from those that serve.

Until anyone can show that the best military in the history of the world is now making it's members do immoral, unlawful, and unconstitutional actions this is nothing short of a slap in the face to all that serve and have served and it needs to stop as it is reflecting poorly on all of us that strapped on our boots from WWII through today.

Can you imagine a private saying he would not land at Normandy because he felt the order to attack was "immoral"? What a disgrace to those proud WWII veterans that someone is now doing just that.

Note: Only this site is the official page of the Armed Forces Tea Party www.armedforcesteaparty.com and we do not and will not ever call for an open challenge to military orders as the facebook page has or as Sgt. Stein has. We hope he sees the great harm his PR stunt is causing to all that are now serving downrange and he will retract all this mess.

It is the opinion of this writer victor luebker that these comments are a gaint PR stunt and not reflective of all the honorable members that serve today and reflective of just one person. More at www.victorluebker.com

A Marine Sgt has made news of late under the name of the armed forces tea party with his open call to pick and choose what orders he feels are legal or moral that he will follow and worse what the stated position of his armed forces tea party page says they will support. I want to be clear as the leader of the armed forces tea party that at no point do we get to become "free agents" in the military like Gary Stein is now and decide what moral orders he will follow. We have a great system it works and even as conservatives we don't get to claim or encourage active duty members can pick and choose the commander and chief or the orders they will follow!

I served under Reagan, Clinton, Bush I and Bush II. At no point did I, or would I ever say I'm not following orders from Clinton because of some personal moral clause I feel fits my agenda or need for attention. In short I followed, and more so I RESPECTED the system of our incredible and professional military and civilian checks and balances we have in place.

Sgt Gary Stein has posted more then once he won't follow orders he feels are illegal or immoral on his facebook page and as recently as today on his page in the name of the armed forces tea party said the same again. Well sorry Gary but it just don't work like that and all the proud and professional NCO's that came before you deserve better for the hard work they put in.

In short this is a very bold and open challenge to the oath we take and the very foundation of the professional NCO's SNCO's and Officers corps that serve in the military and the legal system (UCMJ) that protects each member. Members are not "free agents" in an all volunteer force. they have a choice and that is to get out and not use passive aggressive postings to encourage others to not obey orders under the guise of free speech.

In short there is one www.armedforcesteaparty.com and we don't act in a way that brings negative attention to the military or decide on a one-on-one basis what orders are "moral". We serve and we defend America and we do it within the bounds of a very proven system under the civilian leaders, liberal or conservative that are in charge. In short the "REAL" Tea Party knows the system works and we have elections that count and we work through that process for the change we want.

As I said, I served under four Presidents and never once went rouge or free agent because I had issues with a mission, a political position or a person. I respected the American people and the vote they cast for the commander and chief they wanted at the time...that's how this works Sgt. Stein!

This is my opinion as the leader of the armed forces tea party, Victor Luebker.

USMC Sgt Gary Stein attacks America!

Folks there has to be a real conversation about active duty members that openly question and worse incite others to go after our strong military heritage of loyalty and professionalism in the NCO Corps. Here is a post for a rouge Marine one his facebook page, note: this is after he has been seeking media attention non-stop for his open challenge to the very system and professional NCO corps of following orders we all respect. This is from his page tonight (20 March 2012):

Craig Buttler Well, Gary good to hear more marines are taking a stand against Hitler 2.0. and now he signed that new unconstitutional EO this Friday behind our backs. We need more military to tell Obama to go somewhere.. Good for you marines. Take a stand against Hitler 2.0.

Really Gary Stein, we now are openly allowing and encouraging others to call the President "Hitler" under some fake guise of free speech on your facebook page...that's how this works? We start a fire then stand back and say "ya, but I did not pour the gas on the flames"? That's how this works Gary?

Your little BS media show and attention getting tour is hurting the Tea Party and show that a 26 year old E5 is not in a position to be called a leader of anything. You allow these God Awful posts on your page, you make open comments about the orders you will pick and choose you'll follow and you question the very system of a professional military that we have all served under all for personal attention and fame.

You got you 15 minutes Gary, you questioned the very system so many WWII vets served under and you have openly blasted a five year POW and fellow member of our fraternity (Sen McCain) with your little stunts and "pay attention to me antics". It's time you issue an open letter to all that serve and have served saying you respect our NCO, SNCO and Officer corps and stop this open defiance of our great Armed Forces.

Hitler 2.0 Gary Stein...thats your claim to fame and you need to start acting like an NCO and stop allowing this non-sense to continue so you can get some media attention.

There is only one armed forces tea party and it's at www.armedforcesteaparty.com

USMC Sgt Gary Stein Charged by the Corps!Posted by thearmedforcesteaparty (Diary)

Folks it's sad to report that the young (26 years old) Marine Sgt (Gary Stein) that started a facebook page called armed forces tea party has been charged under the UCMJ by the Corps for his words on the facebook page in question. He openly challenged the system with stated comments about not following orders and his page also called the President the Enemy and referred to the White House is a target like a battlefield among other things.

I privately cautioned him weeks ago to tone it down and of late have been very open with my thoughts about the growing drumbeat of more and more critical comments on the page that is using our good name www.armedforcesteaparty.com and the damage this is doing to the tea party at large. It's been my position he got caught up in all the press and calls from CNN and MSNBC and the celebrity complex trumped common sense here.

This was just posted on his facebook page tonight: Gary Stein founder of AFTP has been formally charged with allegations of making statements about the president that are prejudicial to good orders and violating dod directive 1344 by founding and and running AFTP. The Marine Corps is seeking a Admin Discharge.. more to come

Now in short he is being charged with Article 134 of the UCMJ for doing what no professional NCO, SNCO or Officer can do and that's pick and choose the orders they follow and claim free speech to attack the chain of command and the Commander and Chief. I'm a very open and proud conservative that is anti-Obama policies. However, I served 22 years and I did not decide during the Clinton years I would start picking and choosing the orders I'll follow or slam the C-

In-C or call him the "enemy". As Americans we have the best system and process in the history of the world and we respect the office of the President and the will of the voters!

As a Tea Party we work to elect the candidates we want and issues we feel strongly about like the debt fixed through the process. We have been recognized as a movement for or "CIVIL" discourse and how we clean up and handle ourselves at events. This mess did none of that and served as a person gone rogue or as a movement run a muck....not sure which of the two yet.

In short, one person is not the Tea Party no matter how much attention they get and our active duty members MUST follow orders and more so TRUST the SNCOs and Officers appointed over them to ensure the morality and legality of orders. We don't want anyone doing what Sgt. Gary Stein has done. It's not what our WWII, Korea, and Vietnam vets did as professional NCOs and it's not what we teach at professional military education schools for our current members to do. You don't try and create complete chaos in the system and have a page full of people calling for violent attacks on our system as he has now on his page.

This may well be used against the tea party by the progressive left to show us as some extreme group as a result of all this and if that happens America has lost because one person gave the movement a serious black eye. It's sad it's come to this and I hope in the end all of us in the Tea party are not impacted by the really bad choice of one person.

Folks if you go to google and type in the phrase "tea party calls Obama the enemy" you'll see that one person and a very radical and fringe facebook page started under the guise of a tea party comes up. It's the USMC Sgt Gary Stein and his attacks on Obama the person and his little war to not follow orders he has decided are not moral or legal...yes you read that correct, he has decided are moral or legal.

Worse all this is now being attached to us in the Tea Party like this rouge stance and these radical options stated like the ones below are reflective of the larger Tea Party and our more structured and legit way of dealing with issues. We in the Tea Party have always been above the fray of movements like OWS and radical fringe groups or people that call the President the "enemy" as Gary Stein did on his page and continues to do with comments like today saying they will attack the enemy at the White House in this post:

Armed Forces Tea Party

29 minutes ago

Armed Forces Tea Party, ready to defend the Constitution against all enemies foreign and domestic, from the battlefield to the White House.

Folks these comments MUST be refuted by the Tea Party as they incite domestic violence and that's not who we are or what our movement is about. We are a policy organization that cleans up after our rallies and does not name call the President as an "enemy" or suggest the White House is now a legit target like a "battlefield".

We speak about spending and debt and how we can embrace the policies of Paul Ryan and Rubio and yes even Romney. We talk in a way that encourages all Americans to join us as we take on the broken promises and failed policies of the progressive left. We don't boil it down to an attention seeking sound bite comparing the White House as a legit target or a battlefield. This is great if you want attention as a radical and looking for news stories you can read about yourself at night but it's not how the Tea Party deals with today's issues. A military named group speaking in a way of attacking the White House????? Really?

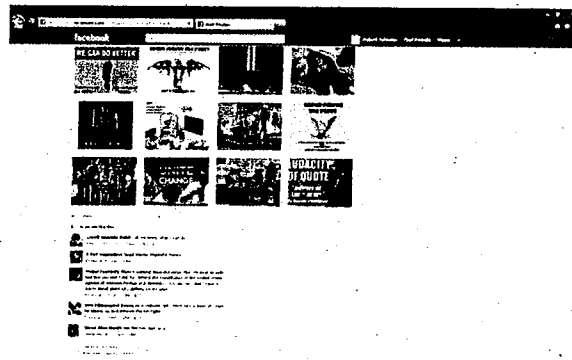

Last, we know that we follow orders in the military and there is no legit reason to even suggest orders are not moral or legal and that people should start picking and choosing when and where they follow them. Can you even imagine the mess this could create if professional soldiers start to mutiny in mass over personal selected orders they will not follow.

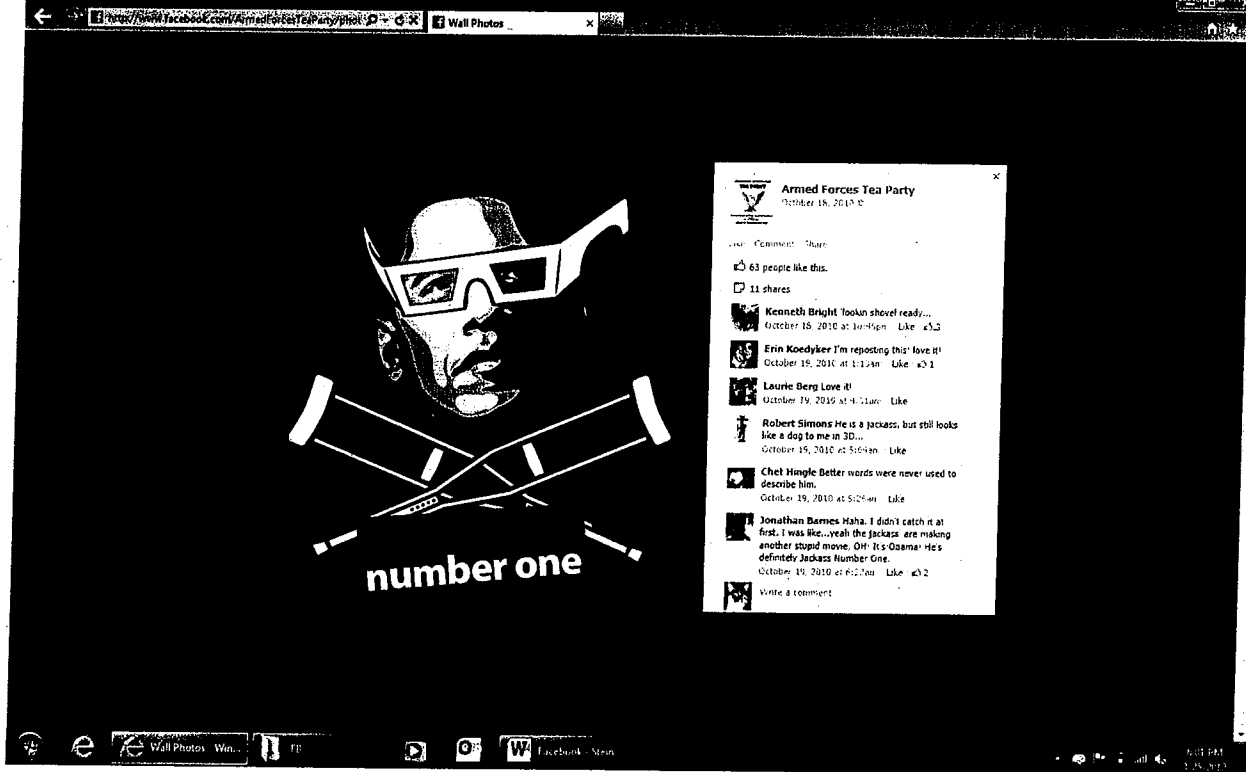

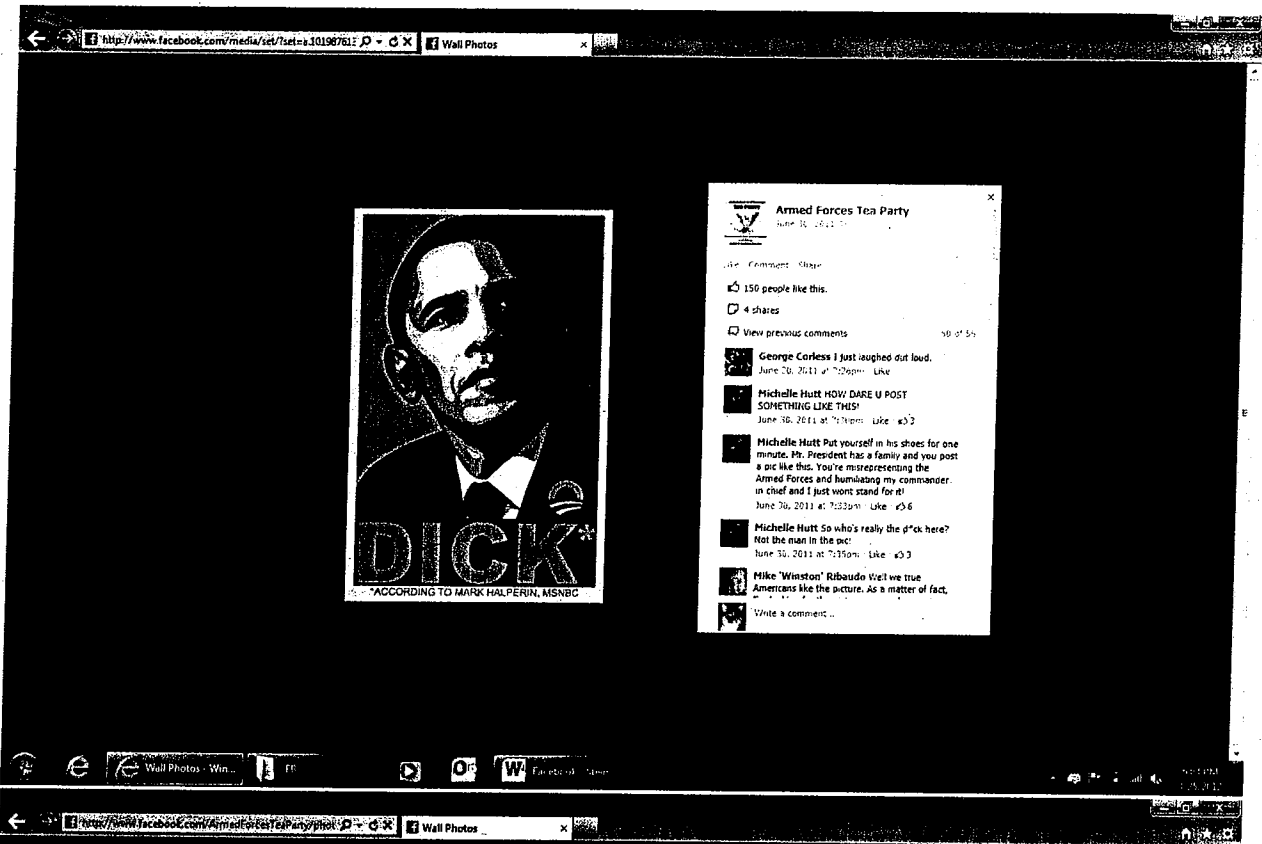

This fringe following and facebook page is not a Tea Party and all of us in the Tea Party must speak out to ensure the progressive left does not associate this person and the awful comments as those of our great movement. We are better than that as a Tea Party.

Statement from Gary Stein

by Armed Forces Tea Party on Wednesday, March 21, 2012 at 10:54pm

"Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same." ~ Ronald Reagan

Its 2200... my daughter is well asleep and the dogs are in their kennels... I sit looking at the multiple awards and promotion certificates neatly organized along the mantle in my living room. As I look at them I think back of the great memories I have had during my 8 years of service... But then I snap back to reality... I am facing an Administrative Discharge from the Marine Corps for simply expressing my right to free speech and stating I would not follow unlawful orders. Read that again "facing an Administrative Discharge from the Marine Corps for simply expressing my right to free speech and stating I would not follow unlawful orders." Sounds crazy right? Now that is not what the papers handed to me exactly said but that is what it meant. It means that military do not rate the same basic rights that all other Americans do. I don't remember reading that in the Constitution.

I swore an oath to obey the orders of the President... But those orders must be lawful. It is the duty of each and every service members to know the difference between an unlawful and lawful order. We need to educate our service members on the Constitution. Just following orders is not a defense when having to answer for following unlawful orders.

The allegations drummed up against me are no more than an agenda by the Marine Corps to use me as an example. I have never spoken on behalf of the Marine Corps or in uniform. I have stayed within guidelines DOD Directive 1344.10 and made sure to. If I am guilty of anything it would be that I am American, a freedom loving Conservative, hell bent on defending the constitution and preserving Americas greatness. I am no more the Leader of the Armed Forces Tea Party than any other of 15,000 members are. I just happen to be normal guy who started a facebook page and who hold the Tea Party values close my heart and believes the Tea Party can enact real change in this country. We are all leaders in the Tea Party!

I thank everyone for the continued support of me and of AFTP. Now is the time we stand together as a Tea Party put aside the smaller issues that divide us from within. in order to accomplish the greater good of defeating President Obama in 2012 and electing a conservative Senate that will help the GOP Candidate repeal Obamacare and address the nation's economic and spending challenges. The Constitution is not Optional.

I will continue to keep you updated on the case

Armed Forces Tea Party SITREP

by Armed Forces Tea Party on Wednesday, January 4, 2012 at 8:18pm

Good Evening,

First I would like to take you back to March of 2010 when I started this page. I started it for the love of my country, and the fact that I was sick of way the Obama admin had been running the country. I was already getting active in my local Tea Party and was encouraged by a friend to make this page. It quickly grew to a little over 300. Then I was asked to comment on a National Tea Party press release and from there it blew up. Soon enough I was on Fox News, MSNBC and soon found myself and AFTP all over national news media outlets. I was summoned back to Camp Pendleton where I am stationed and was order to explain myself. After some help of NewsMax Mag and the ACLU the charges against me we dropped and I continued with AFTP.

<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2010/04/15/marine-says-hell-continue-post-tea-party-facebook-page/>
<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2010/04/21/tea-party-marine-facebook-clarifies-stance-military/>

I am explaining all of this because of statements made by Victor Luebker that he owns AFTP "I own the armed forces tea party brand, the logo and the website". I would like to go on record and say Armed Forces Tea Party is owned by no one person but by its members and me, as its founder. Mr. Luebker did make the old logo which has since been removed and we have gone back to the original logo. He also does own the Armedforcesteparty.com website which he still controls. I brought Mr. Luebker on in a leadership position as I thought he would be a great leader to help take AFTP to the next level. Mr. Luebker and I over the past month started not seeing eye to eye on the way to manage the AFTP page. After trying to fix the problem many times, hearing from many members that we upset with the same issues, and seeing that he attacked people on other pages using the AFTP page, I decided to remove Mr. Luebker as an admin for the page. Although I did not remove him from the page. After removing him as admin he continued with the personal attacks on members, after seeing this I decided to remove him from the page. He has started a group that restricted to who can join with the same name, and I wish him luck in with the page.

The way ahead for AFTP.

As you know I have brought on Brian Hall, a former Marine, to assist in administrative/moderator duties. He worked in the HAWK Missile MOS from 1982-1988. We appreciate spirited debate from the entire political/religious spectrum but frown on rudeness, personal attacks and profanity. Maintain your bearing; exercise sound judgment; use good tact; keep it clean and don't get personal.

We are looking for another member to take a Leadership role a regular Blog writer for AFTP. Duties will included writing daily or at least every other day SITREPs on the hot topics. If you think you would like to take this position please contact me at armedforcesteparty@gmail.com

We are going to have crazy 12 months leading up to the election. We looking forward to growing AFTP and taking back our country.

I was summoned back to Camp Pendleton where I am stationed and was order to explain myself. After some help of NewsMax Mag and the ACLU the charges against me we dropped and I continued with AFTP.

<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2010/04/15/marine-says-hell-continue-post-tea-party-facebook-page/>

<http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2010/04/21/tea-party-marine-facebook-clarifies-stance-military/>

I am explaining all of this because of statements made by Victor Luebkler that he owns AFTP. I own the armed forces tea party brand, the logo and the website. I would like to go on record and say Armed Forces Tea Party is owned by no one person but by its members and me, as its founder. Mr. Luebkler did make the old logo which has since been removed and we have gone back to the original logo. He also does own the Armedforcesteparty.com website which he still controls. I brought Mr. Luebkler on in a leadership position as I thought he would be a great leader to help take AFTP to the next level. Mr. Luebkler and I over the past month started not seeing eye to eye on the way to manage the AFTP page. After trying to fix the problem many times, hearing from many members that we upset with the same issues, and seeing that he attacked people on other pages using eh AFTP name. I decided to remove Mr. Luebkler as an admin for the page. Although I did not remove him from the page. After removing him as admin he continued with the personal attacks on members, after seeing this I decided to remove him from the page. He has started a group that restricted to who can join with the same name, and I wish him luck in with the page.

The way ahead for AFTP.

As you know I have brought on Brian Hall, a former Marine, to assist in administrative/moderator duties. He worked in the MAWV Mole HOS from 1982-1988. We appreciate spirited debate from the entire political/religious spectrum but from on rudeness, personal attacks and profanity. Maintain your bearing; exercise sound judgment; use good tact; keep it clean and don't get personal.

We are looking for another member to take a Leadership role a regular Blog writer for AFTP. Duties will included writing daily or at least every other day SITREPs on the hot topics. If you think you would like to take this position please contact me at armedforcesteparty@gmail.com

Obama or the intern who tweets for him just tweeted the following: I hear patients in the hospital say, 'Thank goodness health care reform passed,' all the time. Now, does anybody really believe that? The president just tweets that he hears patients in the hospital say, 'Thank goodness health care reform passed,' all the time. Can anybody name one way in which somebody in the hospital is benefiting from Obamacare at this moment?

Barack Obama is attempting to occupy a position that essentially is, "I haven't been president for three years. I'm running for office for the first time here. It's worse than anybody ever told us! When does he get blamed? Name for me any other president, three years after a disaster like this, who would not be blamed at least for some of it? You can't."

Pavel Lujardo It's funny that he is basically admitting what we all said when he ran the first time: that he had not the necessary experience for the job. Now he want to convince America that his first term was just "training" and he will start "working for real" if he gets the second?

A story tonight in the North County Times says that I do not believe the president was born in the United States and calls his birth certificate a fraud, is wrong... this is a great article expect for that fact. I do believe their is evidence that needs to be further investigated about Obama's birth calcification but I don't NOT think their is enough evidence to prove it is a fraud.

I hate to tell her when something hits rock bottom anything is considered 'rebounding'.

There's nothing more annoying than hecklers or protestors disrupting a campaign event except, maybe, when those hecklers are high-profile surrogates for your opponent. It was a strategy Mitt Romney recently deployed in Florida, dispatching big-name backers – including my local Rep. Mary Bono Mack(Ca.) – to attend rival Newt Gingrich's campaign events.

Armed Forces Tea Party and myself has gone a rubbed some people the wrong way in the Marine Corps... Someone was mad because of a comment that stated Obama was the domestic enemy our oath speaks of. About Me

Gary Stein is a Conservative blogger, speaker, the founder of the Armed Forces Tea Party and active duty 8 year Marine Corps Veteran. He calls upon active duty, reserve, retired military and their families to come together as a band of brothers and sisters in uniform to stand for common sense conservatism. Any order to the military from the President to use offensive force without the prior authorization from Congress is an unlawful order under Article I, Section 8, Clause 11 of the United States Constitution.

We can not let our elected officials trample on the very document to which defends the right of each American citizen and is the foundation of this country. With our nation 15.4 Trillion dollars in debt, it is irresponsible of the President and the Sec. of Defense to dig our nation deeper into debt with an unconstitutional military offensive in Syria or any other country.

We respectfully request that President Obama and Secretary of Defense Panetta apologize to the American people, for these comments that are a direct attack on the Constitution of the United States. Further more we ask the members of the Congress to approve and move forward with H.C.R 107.

The last 5 days have been a trial of my beliefs. I have had to stand in front of desk at the position attention to explain to great leaders that I respect that I will not back down to the statement I will not follow unlawful orders. I want to be first very clear, I have never received such orders in my almost 9 years as a Marine. When I made this comment it was in reference to a discussion on the National Defense Authorization Act. Time and Time again we have seen that "just following orders" is not a defense to follow such orders.

I do respect the President of the United States Barack Obama but I stand firm in my belief that has an American citizen first and foremost I have the right to state my views in a public forum as long it is not on behalf of the Military. The first amendment is not something that I lost when I swore my oath of enlistment. I swear and oath first and foremost to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.
I encouraged each and every Military member to do their job and do it to the best of their ability. I encourage them to serve their country with honor, courage and commitment. I encourage them to research the Constitution as I believe that a military that is educated in the Constitution is a stronger military.

We are lucky to live in the greatest nation in the world. If we went to keep it that way for our children's children, we must embrace the Constitution. We must fight for fiscal responsibility among our elected officials, a constitutionally limited government and free markets. We must reign in our elected officials and make them accountable once again the people of the United States.

A Bill of Rights is what the people are entitled to against every government, and what no just government should refuse, or rest on inference.

The shooting last night in Afghanistan is sad reminder of the stress our troops have been under in this 10+ year war. While this Soldier's actions are horrible... let us not forget the many many US troops killed by the Afghan people during the war. If Hamid Karzai wants to state this is "unforgivable" then we should pack our bags head back to the states...

Early today we reported that Gary Stein, the founder of Armed Forces Tea Party, was under fire again from the Marine Corps for comment made about Obama. He is officially being investigated for "making disloyal comment about the President". The comments in question were made by his personal Facebook profile during a discussion about "NATO allowing the trial of US Troops for burning the Koren" on a Facebook Group and since been deleted. At this time he does not have a copy of the screen capture, which was sent by a Senior Enlisted Marine to his command. Although he has seen it and it was not a capture of the whole discussion just of a portion of it. The direct comment in question was on how he will not follow the orders off Obama. What was not give to the Marine Corps was the rest of the discussion which he further explained what those orders were unlawful orders and why. He went on to explain in the discussion that he respects the office but to the person. He has expressed that he does not mean disrespect to the office of the President, but he does not agree with the policies the Obama administration continues to press upon the people. He has since contacted Camp Pendleton base legal and was advised not to talk about the

A story tonight in the North County Times says that I do not believe the president was born in the United States and calls his birth certificate a fraud, is wrong... this is a great article expect for that fact. I do believe there is evidence that needs to be further investigated about Obama's birth calcification but I don't NOT think there is enough evidence to prove it is a fraud.

I think what Eric Combs was talking about is the fact, it is almost a mathematical impossibility at this point, Ron Paul will not win the GOP nomination. If they take their votes to a 3rd party, it will ensure President Obama's reelection. I understand that everyone should vote for their conscience, so if your conscience tells you to reelect President Obama, then by all means vote for a 3rd party.

Hot Mic Mr. President... President Obama said that he would have "more flexibility" to deal with controversial issues such as missile defense, but incoming Russian President Vladimir Putin needs to give him "space." In the second term, you see the real Obama. That is when the gun control comes on strong, and when his admin starts to flex muscles you have never seen flexed.

The things that have happened in this country are real. The economic destruction is real. Obamacare is real. The fact that people are going to lose their health care plan is real, and people know these things. The fact that they can't find good-paying jobs, that's real. So all these efforts by Obama and the media to tell people that what they know and feel is not true, it isn't going to work. But they're still going to keep trying.

It has been suggested (and rightfully so) that whenever we quote someone, we give credit to the one who said it. What is your favorite quote concerning liberty, freedom, motivational, inspirational, etc.? If at all possible, name the source, otherwise unknown. It can even be from yourself. One of mine is: "Faithless is he that says farewell when the road ahead darkens." J.R.R. Tolkien

Look at the annual federal budget, its $3 trillion. It's absurd. It can't possibly cost $3 trillion to actually constitutionally run this country. It's outrageous the amount of money that's being spent and what little we're getting for it. All we're getting for it is a bigger and more powerful government, not to mention the destruction of our culture. The destruction of our society.

Mission

To offer a forum that will allow the voices of the US Armed Forces to stand with the Tea Party movement, and be heard.

Company Overview

Our Armed Forces place their life on the line for political agendas every day, is it common sense to think that they should have no opinion about what they are potentially sacrificing their lives for? We say no! Let them be heard.

We are a simple fan page that is set up to allow active, inactive, or retired members of the United States Armed Forces to stand with the Tea Party movement.

We do not represent, and are in no way affiliated with the military, or United States Armed Forces.

We are Not advocating or promoting the removal of any person from his or her elected office.
We are Not advocating or promoting that anyone in the Judicial Branch be removed or replaced.
We are Not advocating or promoting any particular form of government other than the Constitutional Republic which the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution defined and instituted.
We are Not advocating or promoting the rewriting of the Constitution nor are we asking for an Amendment thereto.

We swore an oath to defend the CONSTITUTION against ALL enemies Foreign and Domestic. We did not take an oath to obey unlawful, immoral, or unconstitutional orders from the President, other politicians, or the officers and senior enlisted within our chain of command. AFTP has drawn a line in the sand. We will not "just follow orders."

The Declaration of Independence, founded on natural law, divine providence, God-given natural law, alien rights. The only thing that makes life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness unalienable is the belief in a Creator, not the belief in man or some government. Man and government can't, in the end, confer these rights or legitimately deny them. This is a huge difference we have with the statists, whether the modern statists or past statists. They believe rights are something to be rationed. If you agree with them, they give you rights. If you don't agree with them, they take rights away. They believe that they're all-powerful. We don't. We believe they're earthly

It does not have to be that the greatest generation is behind us. It does not have to be that our children will have a lower standard of living. It will be that way if we choose to believe that. I choose not to believe that.

AFTF official supports any initiative to pull troops from Afghanistan as soon as possible. The mission of winning hearts and minds and promoting Democracy is not achievable with the Afghanistan government's outright corruption and unwillingness to cut ties with the Taliban. We cannot expect to help a country that is not willing to help itself.

We don't have the money for anything that we are spending. It all gets added to the national debt and it all gets added to the income tax rate that your kids and grandkids are going to pay years from now. Your children and grandchildren's lifetime tax payments have been spent, at current tax rates.

Obamacare could ban contraception or abortion. Once Obamacare is implemented, the government can make any change unilaterally it wants. Because, if it is implemented and if this mandate is found to be constitutional -- if the government can tell you that you've got to buy an insurance policy or you get fined or you go to jail -- then they can tell you anything.

There isn't any job growth, and there isn't any economic growth. And how can there be any economic growth with the policies of this administration? They've got drilling moratoriums for oil. They're shutting down the Keystone pipeline, not even allowing it to be built. That's tens of thousands jobs there. But the rather throw away Billions upon Billions of tax payer money, into the failed Green Energy Sector. There are two million few years jobs than when Obama took office.

Linda Robinson For those of you cheap-labor conservatives who think we shouldn't have government restrictions or controls or indeed, any government interference in our lives, let me suggest this: The next time there is a pothole in your road, go fix it yourself. We the people are the rightful masters of both Congress and the courts, not to overthrow the Constitution but to overthrow the men who pervert the Constitution.
Abraham Lincoln

In response to Secretary of Defense Panetta's declaration before the Senate Armed Services Committee that he and President Obama look not to the Congress for authorization to bomb Syria but to NATO and the United Nations, as it was with the situation in Libya, Armed Forces Tea Party is full support of House Concurrent Resolution 107:

Expressing the sense of Congress that the use of offensive military force by a President without prior and clear authorization of an Act of Congress constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor under article II, section 4 of the Constitution.

Any order to the military from the President to use offensive force without the prior authorization from Congress is an unlawful order under Article I, Section 8, Clause 11 of the United States Constitution.

We can not let our elected officials trample on the very document to which defends the right of each American citizen and is the foundation of this country. With our nation 15.4 trillion dollars in debt, it is irresponsible of the President and the Sec. of Defense to dig our nation deeper into debt with an unconstitutional military offensive in Syria or any other country.

We respectfully request that President Obama and Secretary of Defense Panetta apologize to the American people, for these comments that are a direct attack on the Constitution of the United States. Further more we ask the members of the Congress to approve and move forward with H.C.R. 107.

And this is Romney — a guy who can only win in states with a home state advantage, New Englanders and New England transplants, and Mormons. There are a lot more outside those categories than inside them and that is shaping up to cause him heartburn on Super Tuesday. And let me tell you what else is going to happen: Democrats sense such a strong vulnerability now and sniff a chance of a Santorum nomination, they aren't going to wait for the general election to start dumping opposition research on Romney. Get ready Romney supporters, this is just the opening salvo.

looks like the whole thing is ruffed anyway. Do a little research on how the votes are tabulated, next president will be Obama or Romney and either way wont make much of a difference for the people of America. we will still be subject to the will and whim of the global corporations that finance both of them. What can we do to stop this? stopping this kind of thing is what the Tea Party should be about.

Obama is going to be campaigning exclusively to the people who are being pulled in the cart: The people that aren't paying income tax, the people that are on the federal dole. He has made the calculation that that's where he wins.

Curtis Hartwell Troops are targeted to pay far more - much more than unionized (i.e. CIO/RY) civilian DOD employees. REMEMBER: Obama and the DNC/Progs have ALREADY profited "losing", "delaying" and "misdirecting" military ballots in 2008 and 2010 -- it may now be the time for our warfighters to be thrown under the Societal bus.

About

We do not represent, and are in no way affiliated with the military, or United States Armed Forces. If you are trying to reach Gary Stein please email ArmedForcesTP@gmail.com or call 760-936-3484 and leave a message. Thank you.

Mission

To offer a forum that will allow the voices of the US Armed Forces to stand with the Tea Party movement, and be heard.

Company Overview

Our Armed Forces place their life on the line for political agendas every day, is it common sense to think that they should have no opinion about what they are potentially sacrificing their lives for? We say no! Let them be heard.

We are a simple fan page that is set up to allow active, inactive, or retired members of the United States Armed Forces to stand with the Tea Party movement.

We do not represent, and are in no way affiliated with the military, or United States Armed Forces.

Alissa McKaleley Hughes If that oath is to uphold the constitution, then I think he (Gary) is NOT violating his oath. The President of the United States is violating the oath that he took. Why is he not being held responsible for upholding his oath? If it is FREEDOM OF SPEECH not in the Constitution? Yes, he has to follow orders, but not if they violate the CONSTITUTION!!!!

We the people are the rightful masters of both Congress and the courts, not to overthrow the Constitution but to overthrow the men who pervert the Constitution.
Abraham Lincoln

In response to Secretary of Defense Panetta's declaration before the Senate Armed Services Committee that he and President Obama look not to the Congress for authorization to bomb Syria but to NATO and the United Nations, as it was with the situation in Libya, Armed Forces Tea Party is full support of House Concurrent Resolution 107:

Expressing the sense of Congress that the use of offensive military force by a President without prior and clear authorization of an Act of Congress constitutes an impeachable high crime and misdemeanor under article II, section 4 of the Constitution.

Any order to the military from the President to use offensive force without the prior authorization from Congress is an unlawful order under Article I, Section 8, Clause 11 of the United States Constitution.

We can not let our elected officials trample on the very document to which defends the right of each American citizen and is the foundation of this country. With our nation 15.4 trillion dollars in debt, it is irresponsible of the President and the Sec. of Defense to dig our nation deeper into debt with an unconstitutional military offensive in Syria or any other country.

We respectfully request that President Obama and Secretary of Defense Panetta apologize to the American people, for these comments that are a direct attack on the Constitution of the United States. Further more we ask the members of the Congress to approve and move forward with H.C.R 107.

A note from Gary:

The last 5 days have been a trial of my beliefs. I have had to stand in front of desk at the position attention to explain to great leaders that I respect that I will not back down to the statement I will not follow unlawful orders. I want to be first very clear, I have never received such orders in my almost 9 years as a Marine. When I made this comment is was in reference to a discussion on the National Defense Authorization Act. Time and Time again we have seen that "just following orders" is not a defense to follow such orders.

I do respect the President of the United States Barack Obama but I stand firm in my belief that has an American citizen first and foremost I have the right to state my views in a public forum as long it is not on behalf of the Military. The first amendment is not something that I lost when I swore my oath of enlistment. I swore and oath first and foremost to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

I encouraged each and every Military member to do their job and do it to the best of their ability. I encourage them to serve their country with honor, courage and commitment. I encourage them to research the Constitution as I believe that a military that is educated in the Constitution is a stronger military.

We are lucky to live in the greatest nation in the world. If we want to keep it that way for our children's children, we must embrace the Constitution. We must fight for fiscal responsibility among our elected officials, a constitutionally limited government and free markets. We must reign in our elected officials and make them accountable once again the people of the United States.

A Bill of Rights is what the people are entitled to against every government, and what no just government should refuse, or rest on inference.

Thomas Jefferson

$4.32 for gas on base wow. We have more oil in the ground than Saudi Arabia does. We just don't have a president that wants to go get it. We don't have a President who wants to allow it to be gotten... because of special interest groups that fund his election... because the left is obsessed with green energy... because they wants us to run our cars on algae.

The 5 US troops that allegedly burnt Korans will not be put on trial. Although they will still be "seriously punished" and will possibly lose rank. 6 warfighters have already paid the ultimate price for what was a misunderstanding... the Army needs to drop all charges against them... they should not be punished for following orders...

I, Gary Stein, Personally believe that Santorum or Newt are the best choice over all... although I am not 100% sold on anyone... People have been saying I just NEED to come out and say it... So here it is... Some will hate it... Some will love it... But I hope all can respect it, as I do respect their opinion... Although we don't always agree.

Obama's running against a do-nothing Congress. He just submits a budget, a bankrupting budget that is indefensible, it's a campaign document. That's why it can't be defended.

There is a reason the Heritage Action for America, Club for Growth, Competitive Enterprise Institute, and other conservative organizations are opposed to this spending spree called H.R. 7. It is not conservative. It should not be Republican. It is Barack Obama style spending. Call your Congressman today at 202-224-3121 and tell him to oppose H.R. 7, the American Energy & Infrastructure Jobs Act.

A Marine Sgt was fatally shot by an Orange County Sheriff's deputy in a dark San Clemente high school parking lot last week was not armed and the incident doesn't appear to be alcohol- or drug-related... He was shot through the driver side window of his Tahoe with his two children, 9 and 14, in the car. Orange County Sheriff's office has not released why... questions need to be answered to why this young Marine was killed for no reason.

We need unity amongst conservatives. We need a Reagan conservative who embraces all three legs of conservatism. We need someone who can articulate a conservative (fiscal, social, and strong national defense) worldview. Any leg that tries to stand alone will cause the fall of the movement.

Yesterday, the House passed H.R. 3581 - The Budget and Accounting Transparency Act (Scott Garrett). This legislation brings Freddie and Fannie back on budget so taxpayers can see the true cost of these officious and destructive enterprises. In addition, the bill will subject all loan guarantees to the "fair value" accounting method that is used in the private sector.

From Missouri to Minnesota to Colorado the Republican electorate sent a very clear signal — they want conviction over electability. They do not like Mitt Romney. They see Santorum as authentic. They see Mitt Romney as a fraud. Rick Santorum swept the races. Romney, the front runner, got crushed by conservatives. Right now the question becomes whether Rick Santorum can get himself the money and organization to make this last beyond this week and into expensive contests in the larger states. Ron Paul is no more a conservative than he is a Republican. He learned in the 80's just how difficult it is to try to build, or run on any third party ticket, and has come back to the Republican ranks, just to further redefine what the conservative faction is, in his own words. So how do you define the difference between libertarian and conservative?

Ron Paul is no more a conservative than he is a Republican. He learned in the 80's just how difficult it is to try to build, or run on any third party ticket, and has come back to the Republican ranks, just to further redefine what the conservative faction is, in his own words. So how do you define the difference between libertarian and conservative?

I don't know how you go from 132.9 million people working in December to 130.4 million people working in January. That's a loss of 2.5 million jobs. I don't know how you get from that to an increase of 233,000 jobs after the seasonal adjustment. There isn't job creation going on. Not to the tune the regime wants you to believe it. It just isn't happening. Even if the unemployment number really is 8.3%, just remember, it only took us $5 trillion in spending to get there.

Newt Gingrich has found a bright line rule in the Republican rules that clearly and precisely states that all delegates awarded before April 1, 2012, must be proportional. There goes giving Romney all fifty delegates from Florida despite what Florida's GOP Chairman says.

Not 12 hours after the networks called it for him, Mitt Romney went on CNN's Starting Point with Soledad O'Brien, spoke from the heart, and played straight into the liberal caricature that Republicans don't have hearts.

Romney says, "I'm not concerned about the very poor. We have a safety net there. If it needs a repair, I'll fix it. I'm not concerned about the very rich.... I'm concerned about the very heart of America, the 90-95 percent of Americans who right now are struggling."

More and more polls show two things: (1) tonight Mitt Romney will win Florida and (2) Newt Gingrich and Rick Santorum will combined get more votes. In fact, moving forward, the Romney campaign will probably engage in a concerted effort to prop up Rick Santorum because as long as he stays in the race, Gingrich will find it very difficult to stop Romney. More interestingly, if Santorum drops out and Newt Gingrich starts winning, suddenly the establishment will have to take seriously the idea of finding someone to replace Mitt Romney.

And this is Romney — a guy who can only win in states with a home state advantage, New Englanders and New England transplants, and Mormons. There are a lot more outside those categories then inside them and that is shaping up to cause him heartburn on Super Tuesday. And let me tell you what else is going to happen: Democrats sense such a strong vulnerability now and sniff a chance of a Santorum nomination, they aren't going to wait for the general election to start dumping oppo research on Romney. Get ready Romney supporters, this is just the opening salvo.

Subj: AFFIDAVIT, SUMMARY, AND EXCERPTED TRANSCRIPT OF THE TIPPING POINT
RADIO TALK SHOW THAT AIRED ON 7 MARCH 2012 ON FOXNEWS KOGO 95.7FM SAN DIEGO FEATURING SERGEANT GARY A. STEIN, USMC

Encl: (1) Screenshot of radio broadcast as seen on www.youtube.com

1. This is a summary and excerpted transcript of "The Tipping Point" radio talk show that aired on 7 March 2012 on FOXNEWS KOGO 95.7FM San Diego during which Sgt Gary A Stein, USMC gave an interview. A copy of this radio segment was posted on YouTube at: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6faHshCRMw4>
2. The entire segment was approximately 54 minutes. SNM was the only guest speaker on that show. He spoke with "Boon Cutler" and a co-host "John Ager" for nearly the entire length of the show. The host introduced the guest voice as "Sergeant Gary Stein" and "active duty Marine," to which SNM acknowledged. The voice was consistent with the voice of Sgt Stein on news videos segments and other radio recordings that I reviewed.
3. SNM stated on the show that he was "in trouble" for writing "Screw Obama" and that "he will not follow orders" on the METOC group. SNM went on to state that what he meant was that he will not follow any unlawful orders. SNM also stated that his statements were taken out of context, because he included a list of orders which he deemed to be unlawful, which the command did not have in the screenshot, which he said earlier in the show that he has yet to see.
4. SNM attempted to qualify his comments about Obama and that he would not follow all orders were taken out of context and that the command did not see and have subsequent comments he made to qualify his earlier statements:

Host: What exactly did you say that's the big question of the hour?

SNM: Well, what I said was in an open forum uh discussing within in my job ... my MOS ... uh ... we were discussing some of the latest politics that was going on with the NATO and the Koran burning. What I said was that uh as me, as a Marine, if I am ordered, I say "Screw Obama and I will not uh follow un ... uh ... I will not follow orders that he gives to me." And uh that statement was taken out of context and the statement ... the comment right under that and everything else on Facebook works ... my comment was I went down a list of orders uh that I will not follow, those orders from Obama that I will not follow or anybody else at that fact are: I will not take weapons from the citizens ... uh ... I will not detains U.S. citizens without ... without ... uh I won't do it period ... I'm not gonna to fire upon U.S. citizens ... and I'm not going to order uh Marines or take orders that infringe upon my [unintelligible] rights as an American citizen.

DIEGO FEATURING SERGEANT GARY A. STEIN, USMC

Did you say at anytime that you would not confiscate weapons from a domestic terrorist?

I said I wouldn't follow the orders ... But what I ...also said ---- and what wasn't included in the complaint that was sent ---- is that I said I wouldn't follow unlawful orders, such as taking away weapons from U.S. citizens or orders to kill Americans.

Host: Let's sort this out just one step at a time. Ok, Gary, you made some Facebook comments about the things you would not do against the American citizenry. What happened after that?

SNM: Uh, well what happened after that ... uh ... those comments were made last week on an open forum ... uh ... the forum was taken down ... uh ... by ... by a ... uh ... officer in the Marine Corps who runs the forum ... umm ... he contacted me and said that ... you know ... let's try to keep on topic which was our MOS and I said that's absolutely fine, I apologize sir. Uh ... so someone who was on that forum ... uh ... made a screen capture of it and sent that to my command ... uh ... when my command got it ... uh ... on last week. I happen to be on leave during last week except for Friday ... uh when I came back on Friday, they questioned me about it. They talked to me about it. They counseled me. Uh ... these are Marines that I ... uh ... respect very much ... uh the immediate ... uh ... the officers who worked with me. Ummm ... we talked about it, we joked about it. It wasn't ... uh ... it wasn't a too big deal. They just wanted to make sure I knew what my left and right lateral limits were. Yesterday, uh ... most of the same conversation early in the morning when I got there and at 0900 I was called into my First Sergeant's office where I was ... uh ... I reported in like any other Marine would do and I was ... uh ... read my Article 31 rights or what ... uh ... civilians would most likely would call the Miranda Rights and ... uh ... I was told that I am under investigation for ... uh ... breaking Article 134 the General Article and that I made disloyal comments to the President of the United States of America.

Host: So the charge or the allegation is that or what you are under investigation for is making disloyal comments about the President of the United States. Is that correct?

SNM: Yes.

Host: Did you do that?

SNM: No, I did not.

Host: Ok ... (interrupted)

SNM: And if I did and you know ... let me just go into this part here. If someone ... uh ... sees my comments as disloyal to the President ... um ... last I checked our oath isn't to the President ... it ... our loyalty lies with the Constitution and with the American people. My ... in my oath it talks about following orders and in that oath when we talk about following orders, we are talking about following lawful orders, and I ... uh ... will not follow unlawful orders and my loyalty is to the Constitution, to the people of the United States of America first.

Guest host: What do you think Gary, if it wouldn't have named the President that we have now, because it could be any President, but if we were to name the President that we had now, do you think it would have been different?

SNM: If I hadn't named ... if I hadn't said Obama in the comment?

Guest host: Yeah...yeah.

SNM: If I hadn't said Obama in the comment, I don't think it would have gotten as much attention. I'm assuming that the person who reported this ... uh ... probably ... uh ... is more of a ... uh
... non-conservative or a Democrat who probably took offense to it
... and uh ... that's probably why it's reported, so I don't think it would have been a big deal. I think I probably gotten talked to, but because I was using Obama's name ... and I think ... uh ... and the press ... uh ... sees this as an issue and obviously other warfighters sees this as an issue I think that is why it is ... uh
... it's such a big deal.

5. The show's host also asked SNM to comment on the National Defense Authorization Act (which the host explained to SNM before asking him to comment), the My Lai massacre, and the seizure of weapons from civilians by National Guardsman during the Hurricane Katrina relief effort, none of which SNM mentioned in his prior interviews or Facebook posts, which were quickly adopted and recycled in subsequent interviews and posts.

Subj: AFFIDAVIT, SUMMARY, AND EXCERPTED TRANSCRIPT OF THE KUSI SAN DIEGO
MORNING NEWS VIDEO SEGMENT THAT AIRED ON 7 MARCH 2012 FEATURING
SERGEANT GARY A. STEIN, USMC

Encl: (1) Screenshot of video as seen on KUSI.COM

1. This is an excerpted transcript of a KUSI San Diego news segment that aired on 7 March 2012. A copy of this video segment was posted on YouTube at: <http://www.kusi.com/video?clipId=6818564&autostart=true>

2. SNM was in the studio with the reporters. He was on the video for approximately three minutes.

3. When asked by the show to explain if SNM will not obey certain orders by the President, SNM stated:

You are absolutely correct. There are certain orders that I will not obey from the President of the United States and from the Officers and enlisted Marines put in front of me [sic] and those are unlawful orders. I don't know if you are familiar with the My Lai massacre in Vietnam where a Lieutenant was court-martialed for being ordered to ... uh ... burn down a village in Vietnam. He was ordered to do it. His defense was that he was ordered to do it but we still found him guilty. We seen [sic] this in New Orleans during Katrina where National Guard members ordered [sic] uh take away guns and they were found guilty of this type stuff. So unlawful orders I will not follow, lawful orders I will.

4. SNM stated that he has not been given any order that he deems unlawful but will consider any order requiring him to cease sponsorship or activities involving the Armed Forces Tea Party Facebook page as unlawful and a violation of his First Amendment right to free speech.

GARY A. STEIN, USMC

1. This is a summary and excerpted transcript of the Rick Amato Radio Show that aired on 13 March 2012 on KOGO 95.7FM San Diego during which Sgt Gary A Stein, USMC gave an interview. A copy or podcast in MP3 format of this audio recording may be downloaded from the show's website at:
<http://amatotalk.com/podcasts/AMAT0-03-13-12.mp3>

2. The entire segment was approximately 53 minutes, some 30 minutes devoted to SNM. The show also featured SNM and Timothy C. Parlatore, as guest speakers. SNM spoke with the host for approximately 15 minutes before the host brought in Mr. Palatore, an attorney with the offices of Cutler & Palatore. Mr. Palatore is a civilian attorney based at New York City. The host introduced SNM as "Sergeant Gary Stein," to which SNM acknowledged. The voice was consistent with the voice of SNM on news videos segments and other radio recordings that I have reviewed.

3. During the show, SNM gave a version of the METOC comments that was inconsistent from the screenshot of the METOC group and his prior public statement. He alleged during the interview that efforts to hold him accountable are the result of the "liberal media types":

Rick Amato (host):You originally declared that you would not follow orders from the Commander-in-Chief, President Barak Obama, on this Facebook page. The article goes on to say that you have since soften that statement. Is that accurate?

SNM: It is not accurate, actually. What happened was uh I was using my personal Facebook page uh. We were uh I was in a discussion with fellow ... fellow Marines that I know and that I work in the same field with, and we were talking about uh we were talking about the NDAA, National Defense Authorization Act, and we were discussing it and within the context of that Act, what I say (sic) that was that I would not follow orders of the President of the United States when context with uh in connection to that uh to the NDAA. And then people say you know, "Oh what do you mean you won't follow orders." I then I said, "I won't follow unlawful orders." And uh I think what happened is you know that the liberal media types that see this Marine who will not follow lawful orders and takes it out of context, and if it is not in context it sounds [unintelligible]. But if you think about what we are talking about and what the NDAA actually authorizes and what you know it gives the power to the federal government to ... to do. Uh, I think not following orders or not following unlawful orders is the right thing to do.

4. SNM acknowledges that the METOC group a public forum for fellow Marine Corps weatherman to keep in touch.

5. When asked by the host on whether active duty members are limited from political activity and whether starting Armed Forces Tea Party (AFTP) is a political statement, SNM replied that "I do not think that (starting the AFTP) is a political statement." He also stated words to the effect that there was no or should be no restriction on his ability to publicize comments found on his AFTP Facebook page, emphasizing that, "I am an American first and foremost - Marine second." SNM also specifically referred to the DoD Directive and stated that the directive only prohibited partisan political groups and that it does not apply to AFTP or his posts, because he does not find them to be partisan political in nature.

6. SNM's comments on his statements on the President:

SNM: ...I'm not attacking Barak Obama the person. I never have. I've never said anything personally about him. I've attacked his administration... uh... I've attacked his policies, and I don't do it on behalf of the Marine Corps or do it on behalf the military. I'm doing it on behalf of Sergeant Gary Stein, if you look on my webpage, my Facebook page, it says on there... you know... and it's what the Marine Corps told me to put on there two years ago. They told me to... put it on there that uh, "The Armed Forces Tea Party and/or Gary Stein does not represent the views and the beliefs of the Marine Corps, the military, or the DoD"...

7. SNM commented on whether he possessed any prior knowledge of the regulations and laws:

Host: You sound like you are either very savvy on the military judicial stuff or have some legal advice, or both.

SNM: Uh... No, I've actually done a lot of research myself. I've done a lot of reading. Ummm... I've done a lot of reading of the JAG Manual. I know that... uh... in most... uh... cases, it's supposed to be a three day, you know, preliminary inquiry, and we're now going into the ninth day. Ummm... so I've done a lot of research, I have talked to... uh... attorney. I do not have an attorney... ummm... on retainer right now, but I have talked a couple... on what they think I should do, what they think of the case...

7. SNM added to Timothy Palatore's comments regarding the investigation:

Host: Tim, very, very good stuff you're bringing up. The fact that Gary Stein says these investigations, I believed he said these investigations take three days. This one has taken nine. Do you read anything into that, Tim?

Subj: AFFIDAVIT AND EXCERPTED TRANSCRIPT OF THE RICK AMATO RADIO SHOW THAT AIRED 13 MARCH 2012 ON KOGO 95.7FM SAN DIEGO FEATURING SERGEANT
GARY A. STEIN, USMC

Parlatore: Well, I think certainly, uh, certain investigations take longer when there becomes these complicated issues. The investigation is not generally conducted by a... uh... by an attorney, unlike that old, great TV show JAG. Uh... they'll... they'll do these investigations but then when they bring it to an actual JAG officer to sit there and say, "Ok now how do we charge this?" You got to sit there and say, "Well, is this something that is even going to stand?" And from my reading of the statute and case law on this thing, I would be willing to bet that even if they charged him, even if they took him to trial and convicted him and everything else, and... you know... we tried to put in an appeal for him. I think the court would strike it down to say, "No, it's not even a crime." Even if he did everything the Government claims that he did, it's not a crime.

Host: You know, hearing you say that, what now enters my mind... both Tim Palatore and Sgt Gary Stein... this case... your story has become pretty high profiled across... (interrupted)

SNM: It has...

Host: ...it really...

SNM: I was on CNN yesterday morning. I was on CNN on Friday... uh... I get texts everyday, "I saw... I saw you on this... I saw you on that." It's been high profiled. I think it's because... it's... like I said, unprecedented avenue the Marine Corps, the military in general hasn't been down yet.

Host: Tim, they might have an embarrassing situation on their hands... the... the... you know... the fact that it has come so high profiled. Listen to what you say, they got themselves into a corner here.

Parlatore: Sure, and you know that frequently happens. I've been involved in a few military investigations, you know, where the commanding officers, you know, rushes to say, "Oh well, this is wrong," and the investigation just kind of starts running away, and nobody has the mental wherewithal to just stop there and say, "wait a minute, let's see if this is really going to go anywhere before it's just gonna... back ourselves into a corner...so..."

SNM: Tim, you know... you know what we call it Tim? We call it, "Good initiative, bad judgment."

Parlatore: (laughs) Exactly!

Host: (snickering)

Enc: (1) Screenshot of blog as seen on www.YouTube.com

1. This is a summary and excerpted transcript of a video blog titled "The Armed Forces Tea Party Episode 1.12" that Sergeant Gary A. Stein, USMC, made and posted on YouTube on 13 March 2012. The video segment was posted on YouTube at: "<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t9KFQwdsg9Y>"
2. The 15 minute audio recording on YouTube shows the AFTP logo, Facebook page address, SNM's photo as found on his "Gary Stein" Facebook page, with the date "March 13, 2012." The voice identified himself as "Gary Stein, found of the Armed Forces Tea Party." The voice was consistent with the voice of Sgt Stein on news videos segments and other radio recordings that I reviewed.
3. SNM began the discussion with the situation in Syria and the Army Staff Sergeant accused of shooting Afghan civilians.
4. SNM also provided an update of "the investigation on him for his comments" in which he stated:

My investigation that's going about my comments uh that were allegedly disloyal to the President... I want to give you an update. Here's the update...there is no update. Uh I've still not been told anything by the Marine Corps. I have been denied uh any comment by my uh by my uh officers appointed above me. They have not told anything. They will not comment about it. So I am just waiting. And you know what, as I am waiting, I am keep carrying on what I've been doing for the last two years uh being the uh as the founder of the Armed Forces Tea Party....

4. SNM addressed the issue of his METOC comments by qualifying his statements as that the only orders he will not follow are unlawful orders:

I never said that I not will lawful orders from the President or anybody appointed over me. I never said that, so let's be clear. I will.... Gary A. Stein will follow lawful orders given to me by the President of the United States and the officers and senior enlisted Marines or anybody else that happens to fall ahead of me. I will follow lawful orders. That being said, I will not follow unlawful orders. And if you can find a Soldier or a Marine or Airman or Sailor that will say, "I will follow unlawful orders," that's the person you need to be going after. That's the person that says, "I don't care what the law says. I don't care what the Constitution says. I'm gonna go, I'm gonna do what I'm told to do." That's not a defense. Following unlawful orders, just following orders is not a defense once you get court-martialed. If I'm in Afghanistan and a platoon commander comes up to me and says, "Hey, go up there and just, just take out that village. I want them dead, women, children, uh men, goat, dog, sheep, the cat that we saw meowing the other day all of them dead." And I go, "Okay sir, I'm gonna do that right now." And I go out there and shoot them all, uh that's an unlawful order. It's immoral. It's horrible. It's an unlawful order. So I don't understand why people are so upset that I said I will not follow unlawful orders....

Subj: AFFIDAVIT, SUMMARY, AND EXCERPTED TRANSCRIPT OF "THE ARMED FORCES TEA PARTY EPISODE 1.12" VIDEO BLOG DATED 13 MARCH 2012
FEATURING SERGEANT GARY A. STEIN, USMC

5. SNM also commented on whether there are other moderators to the Armed Forces Tea Party Facebook page:

Though I do have, many people do ask, if we have moderators. We do have three other moderators. Uh... I'm not gonna just say their name though right now, because I'm not sure they want to know their name. If they do, they can announce it later. Uh... we do have other moderators, although I'm the one who does the most of... probably 99.9% of the status updates given by Armed Forces Tea Party are ones that I have... I've written or gotten from some other place and posted on there. And no by no means do I have this crazy intelligent brain to come up with these cool status updates. It's not all my doing. I take them from all sorts of places. Some do come from my heart, some come from my mind, some come from the Internet. So that being said, uh... I'm gonna keep continue what I'm doing....

The host introduced the guest voice as "Sergeant Gary Stein," to which SNM acknowledged. The voice was consistent with the voice of Sgt Stein on news videos segments and other radio recordings that I reviewed.

SNM: Alright, a couple weeks ago, having a personal conversation with my personal Facebook page with a few colleagues of mine about the NDAA, National Defense Authorization Act, and unconstitutional orders and lawful orders and things of that nature and ... uh ... in that context ... uh ... someone said would you follow ... uh ... the orders of the President and in that context talking about unlawful orders, and I said ... SNM: That was the whole conversation was about the National Defense Authorization Act ... about the ... about the ... uh ... about the ... uh ... soldiers being in trouble for burning the Koran. That was the whole conversation, about unlawful orders, unconstitutional orders, that's what we were talking about, and so in the context that's what I said was exactly right. Now, I will follow the orders of the President and I will ... if he ... if they ... if Congress says ... you know ... we need to go to war, the President says we will need to go to war ... the President comes to my house right now and says, "Sgt Stein are you going to come out here and salute me," and I'm going to say, "Yes, Mr. President." I'm going to come out there and I'm going to salute him. It's my job. That my duty as a Marine. That's my job, to pay respect to the office of the President, but I will not follow unlawful orders from anybody.

Host: So here's my ... here's my question ... so on Facebook your having this conversation and it's ... and reading the transcript it kind of a spirited debate you are having back and forth with, and you say, "No I will not follow the orders," and you corrected yourself, "No I wouldn't follow con ..." ... uh just to clarify ... I won't ... I won't follow unconstitutional orders... (interrupted)

SNM: Right, it was clarified, but some people jump on that like "oh my God, look what he said." And I want people to understand that I was clarifying what I was saying ... (interrupted)

Host: Yeah, so you went back and clarified for folks and you started getting phone calls and knocks on the door the next day, right. So what happened next?

SNM: The next day I get a phone call saying that you know someone reported me, another Marine, to my command saying that they didn't think it was right ... um ... that got... um ... that I was questioned a couple days by officers in my command on it. All of that happened on Thursday and Friday. The following Monday I was read my rights and that's where it all started and now ... uh ... yesterday I was uh served with a notice from my command stating that they are pushing me toward administrative discharge uh... (interrupted)

Host: Oh hang on a second, let me back up. By the way, we're talking to U.S. Marine Sergeant Gary Stein. He is the Tea Party activist that used Facebook uh to uh to uh express his feelings about President Obama. Of course this is news story's everywhere, you can go to KOGO.COM... ..but I have to ask you, what exactly is, Gary, an administratively, define that for us.

SNM: Administrative discharge is basically them going around the court-martial process and going around the nonjudicial punishment uh process. And uh when you think about... think about court-martial which is like a trial that you see on Law and Order on TV. When talk about administrative hearing or administrative discharge, I'm... I'm... the burden of proof is on me to prove I did nothing wrong against a panel of... of uh of officers, which is usually about between one to three officers, so that's the difference, that's the big difference, and there's a lot of repercussions. If I'm found, if they do decide to discharge me, I'm gonna be bust me down to Lance Corporal. I'm going to lose all my benefits. I'm gonna lose my disability benefits. I will lose uh all my uniforms, and I will basically not be a Marine... a Marine. And you know the always say that when you are a Marine, you are a Marine forever. That's the kind of thing they'll take away from me.

1. This is a summary and excerpted transcript of the Associated Press and ABC 10 News video segment that aired on 22 March 2012 on Sgt Gary A Stein's attendance and speaking engagement at the 22 March 2012 Fallbrook Tea Party meeting at Bonsall, California.

2. The Fallbrook Tea Party meeting took place at the San Luis Rey Downs Golf Resort in Bonsall, California. SNM advertised this event on his personal Gary Stein and AFTP Facebook pages. The meeting was attended by at least two active duty Marine officers and the subject of an Associated Press and "ABC 10" San Diego news segment. The Associated Press news segment can be found on YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=whKrwR0RJ3Y>. The ABC 10 news segment can be found YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=G--q-qVYvNE>

2. SNM filmed saying before a crowd in civilian attire, "...they asked me if President Obama asked you to do that. I said, 'Screw Obama, I'm now going to follow unlawful orders' and I understand...." His comments invoked laughs by the crowd.

3. SNM also gave an on camera interview to both the Associated Press and ABC10. Before the Associated Press, SNM dismissed the suggestion that his speech may violate established conduct:

"I wasn't being loud. I wasn't yelling from the street tops (sic) or raising banners or (intelligible) leading a march. I never led a march. I never done anything like that.... It's a Facebook page." <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=whKrwR0RJ3Y>.

"We're all Americans. Whose (sic) the President work for? He's... he's paid from the same tax dollars as I am paid for. So... so... you are just his boss as he is your boss... er... my boss, I should say. So, I... that is my right... to be critical of the policies he set forth... I've done nothing wrong."

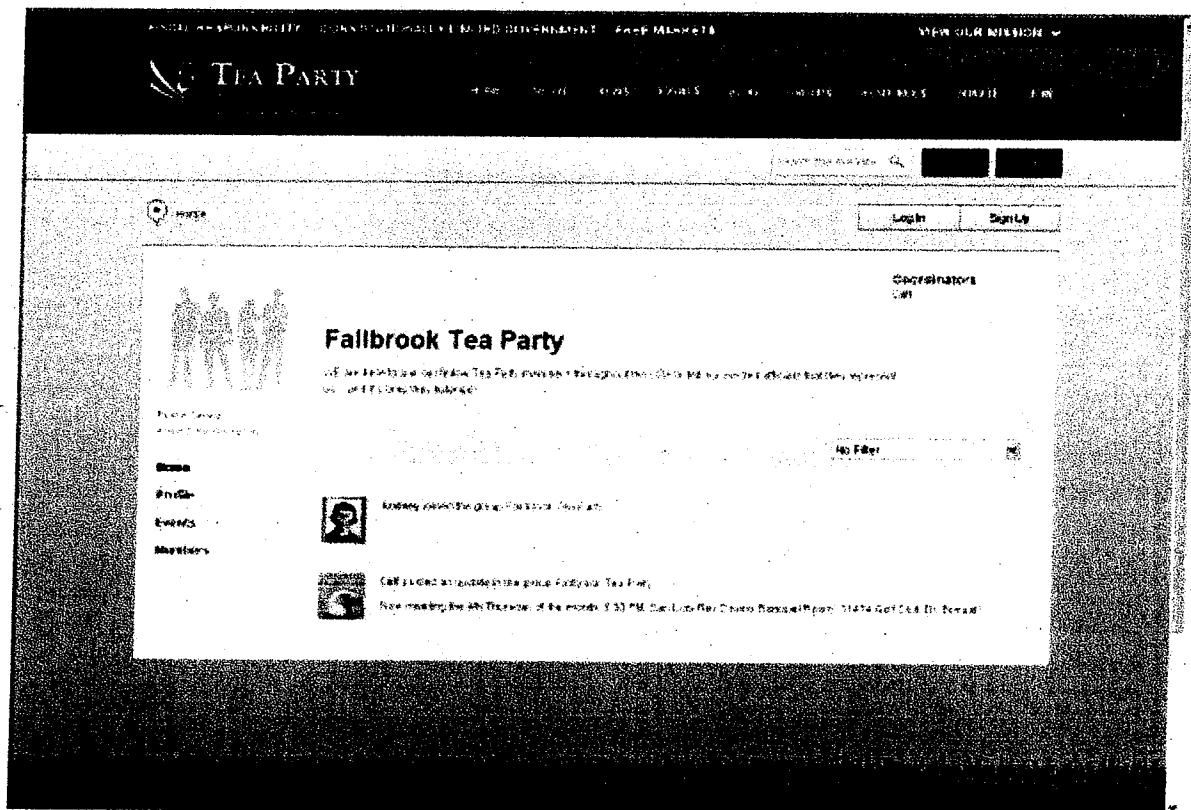

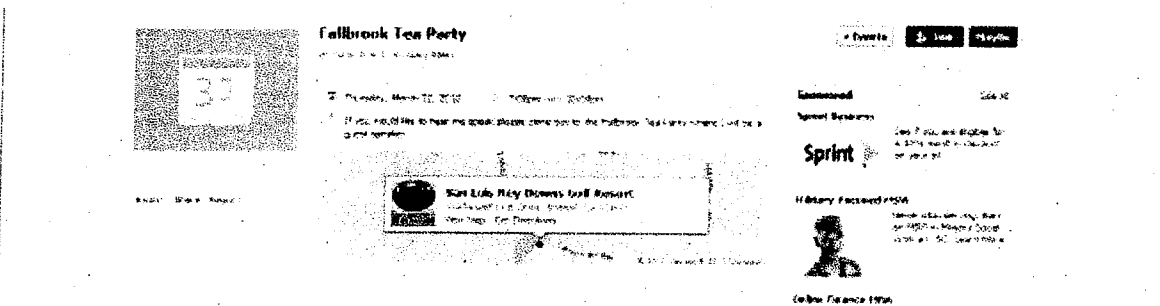

4. Captain Gavin K. Logan and Captain Christopher S. Edwards, both judge advocates from the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego were present at the meeting. Both Marines witnessed SNM telling the audience that he never said that he would not follow all orders from President Obama but only that he will not unlawful orders from the President. Both witnesses also stated that SNM made disparaging remarks about the Obama administration and its campaign for reelection.

Subj: AFFIDAVIT, SUMMARY, AND EXCERPTED TRANSCRIPT OF THE REALNEWS.COM VIDEO SEGMENT THAT AIRED 23 MARCH 2012 FEATURING SERGEANT GARY A. STEIN, USMC

Encl: (1) Screenshot of the video segment as seen on www.youtube.com

1. This is an excerpted transcript of the RealNews.com video news segment that aired on 23 March 2012. A copy of this video segment was posted on YouTube at the address:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?NR=1&v=dz3zdQFDtwU&feature=endscreen>

2. The entire news segment was approximately 14 minutes. SNM appeared and spoke for approximately 10 minutes. SNM gave the video interview using Skype, likely from his mobile smartphone, while sitting in his personally owned vehicle in the daytime. He was introduced by the show host as Sergeant Gary Stein, an active duty Marine, to which he acknowledged. During the interview, SNM alleged to the show host that the military justice system is an arbitrary system and that a service member's commander has sole discretion in determining the legality of the service member's conduct. Additionally, SNM alleges that the prosecutorial efforts were politically motivated by members of the current political administration. SNM gave the interview in his civilian attire while sitting in his privately owned vehicle, which suggests that he may have given the interview during work hours. SNM's Battalion Commander advised this Investigating Officer that he received no notice from SNM that he provided this interview.

3. When asked by the reporter whether his words violated the UCMJ, SNM stated:

Well, Article 88 is for commissioned officers only and I'm not a commissioned officer, so Article 88 is right off the bat is thrown out... that doesn't apply to me ... uh but ... I'm making ... I don't see how these are contemptuous words in the first place so maybe that I'm against ObamaCare or saying that he thinks that he's really drilled our economy to the ground is not contemptuous at all. I think it is the truth.

4. When asked by the reporter whether talking to the media is risky, SNM replied:

No, because my command knows uh that uh I'm doing media interviews and that's no problem as long as I stick to the issues. As long as I'm not going off on wild tangents, talking about things that don't matter, I'm talking about the case at hand, the investigation, and what's going on and about the issue surrounding it, I'm perfectly fine.

5. When asked by the reporter about limitations of speech in the military and whether he is possibly running afoul of some other articles of the UCMJ, SNM stated:

Oh, that comes out to a matter of opinion of that commander. That's what it is. It's not a matter of opinion of the law anymore. It's a matter of the opinion of the commander, so I can say I believe we eat [unintelligible] McDonalds and McDonalds the best fast food in the world ... he might find that wrong. He might find me.. he might take that as me telling people to go get fat and eat McDonalds but that is not what I'm saying is that I like McDonalds. [unintelligible] So if he is stating that I don't agree the policies my personal opinion if he has a problem with my personal opinion he should take it to me on a personal level not charge me with something. And I don't see that is what is happening here. I think my command coming down like this is more uh of the power that be uh pressuring them to.
